The Second Annual Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Conference and Presentation of the 2005 Brigham-Kanner Prize to Professor Richard A. Epstein October 28-29, 2005

The Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Conference and Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize are named in recognition of Toby Prince Brigham and Gideon Kanner for their lifetime contributions to private property rights, their efforts to advance the constitutional protections thereof, and their accomplishments in preserving the protections and dignity of the individual and civil rights to private property. Mr. Brigham is an attorney who has specialized in eminent domain and property rights law for more than 40 years and is a founding partner of Brigham Moore, LLP, in Florida. Professor Kanner is Professor of Law Emeritus at the Loyola Law School and is currently Of Counsel at Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, in California.

Professor Richard A. Epstein is the recipient of the 2005
Brigham-Kanner Prize. Professor Epstein is the James Parker
Hall Distinguished Service Professor of Law at the University of Chicago where he also serves as director of the John M. Olin Program in Law and Economics. He has written on a wide range of legal and interdisciplinary topics and is the author of numerous works including Skepticism and Freedom: A Modern Case for Classical Liberalism (University of Chicago Press, 2003), Simple Rules for a Complex World (Harvard University Press, 1995), Bargaining with the State (Princeton University Press, 1993)

and Takings: Private Property and the Power of Eminent Domain (Harvard University Press, 1985). Professor Epstein is a senior fellow at the Hoover Institution and at the University of Chicago Medical School's Center for Clinical Medical Ethics. He was inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1985. Harvard Law School Professor Frank I. Michelman was the Prize's inaugural recipient in 2004.

In addition to commentary on the impact of Professor Epstein's work, the conference will include a discussion of public use in the aftermath of Kelo and recent developments in due process protection of property rights. Following the academic panels, attendees are welcome at a luncheon round table that will address the press and public awareness of the use of eminent domain.

The William & Mary Property Rights Project

The William & Mary Property Rights Project has two primary goals. First, it encourages legal scholarship on the role that property rights play in society. Second, it facilitates the exchange of ideas between the academy and the practicing property rights bar. In addition to awarding the Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize and hosting the allied conference each year, the Project will develop web-based materials that serve its ends.

Institute of Bill of Rights Law

The Institute of Bill of Rights Law is a teaching, research and public education unit of the William & Mary School of Law. For more information on its programs, symposia and scholarly endeavors, please visit www.wm.edu/law/ibrl/.
