JD Declaration of Concentration

submit to lawreg@wm.edu by deadlines below

Student Printed Name:

W&M ID Number:

- Law School concentrations indicate focused coursework and experiential learning or independent research in a particular area of study beyond the required curriculum. Students who complete the concentration will receive a notation on their Law School transcript.
- A student may declare a maximum of two concentrations.
- Each concentration requires successful independent completion of (1) two or more foundational courses, (2) three or more approved courses, and (3) an experiential course or a paper approved by the Vice Dean.
- A single course or experience may not count as satisfying two concentrations.
- A student may use a single course to satisfy the six credits experiential learning requirement and the selected concentration's group C experiential course option.
- A student should refer to the University Catalog and Degree Works for published concentration requirements.
- Students may not submit this form before Add/Drop ends in their final semester.
- Attach any approvals from the Vice Dean for independent research, student notes, and courses approved on an ad hoc basis.
- Submission deadlines:
