THE WILLIAM & MARY PROPERTY RIGHTS PROJECT

The William & Mary Property Rights Project has two primary goals. First, it encourages legal scholarship on the role that property rights play in society. Second, it facilitates the exchange of ideas between the academy and the practicing property rights bar. In addition to awarding the Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize and hosting an annual conference, the Project develops web-based materials that serve its ends.

INSTITUTE OF BILL OF RIGHTS LAW

The Institute of Bill of Rights Law of William & Mary Law School contributes to the ongoing national dialog about issues relating to the Constitution and the Bill of Rights through programs and events, such as the annual Supreme Court Preview Conference. For more information on its programs, symposia, and scholarly endeavors, please visit law.wm.edu/ibrl.
Professor Richard E. Pipes is the 2009 recipient of the Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize. He is the Frank B. Kellogg Professor of Law, Emeritus, at Harvard Law School. Among his appointments, he served as Director of Harvard University’s Russian Research Center from 1968-1973, as Chairman of the CIA’s ‘Team B’ to review Strategic Intelligence Estimates in 1976, and as Director of East European and Soviet Affairs at the Reagan National Security Council from 1981-1982.

Professor Pipes was the 2007 recipient of the National Humanities Medal. The Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Conference and Brigham-Kanner Property Rights Prize are named in recognition of Toby Prince Brigham and Gideon Kanner for their lifetime contributions to private property, their efforts to advance the constitutional protection of property, and their accomplishments in preserving the important role that private property plays in protecting individual and civil rights.
