

Class Notes Summer 2019

Daniel Forbes, Jr. ('75) passed away recently. Born in Suffolk, Virginia, and raised in Franklin, where he would reside before attending East Carolina University for his Business degree. He served in the United States Air National Guard, taught high school, and coached JV football prior to attending William & Mary Law School. Later in life, he opened his own private practice, where he served for over forty years.

James Holahan ('83) was selected for inclusion in the 2019 Super Lawyers list for Upstate New York. He has focused on Employment & Labor Law with Bond, Schoeneck & King PLLC.

Michael J. Garvin ('84) is included on the 2020 Best Lawyers in America list. He has worked in the areas of Intellectual Property, Patent Law, and Trademark Law Litigation as a Partner with Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP.

Albert J. Resolute, III ('88) has returned to private practice with the Oast & Taylor law firm after a twenty year career with the Federal Bureau of Investigation. His areas of practice include Elder Law, Estate Planning, and Estate and Trust Administration.

Gregory S. Williams ('90) was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2019 for the practice area of Trusts and Estates from Carruthers & Roth, P.A. in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Thomas P. Cody ('91) was named to the Best Lawyers in America 2020 list in his practice area of Real Estate Law. He is a Partner at Robinson+Cole in Hartford, Connecticut.

Jane Sherman Chambers ('92) has accepted the role of President of the National Association of Prosecutor Coordinators. She is also the Director of the Virginia Commonwealth's Attorneys Services Council. She has been with CASC since 2004.

Ann Rogers ('92) has been selected to serve as the next House Employment Counsel for the United States House of Representatives. Ann leads the office in providing legal advice and training to House offices about employment practices and provides legal representation in employment matters.

Matthew D. Whitworth ('95) was included in the 2020 edition of The Best Lawyers in America. He practices Real Estate Law as a Partner at Meyer, Unkovic & Scott LLP. Matthew has been recognized since 2018.

Richard L. Weber ('99) was selected to the 2019 Super Lawyers for Upstate New York. He practices Environmental Litigation with Bond, Schoeneck & King.

Elizabeth M. Weldon ('01) was selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America 2020 for her practice area of Franchise Law. She is a Partner at Snell & Wilmer in Orange County, California.

Gary L. Abbott ('04) recently passed away on July 10, 2019. Gary grew up in Yorktown, VA. After serving the Newport News Shipyard for thirty-one years, he graduated from Christopher Newport University and obtained a law degree from William & Mary Law School. Gary dedicated his life to "fighting for the little guy" against businesses in Virginia. He is survived by his wife, Robin, his children, and grandchildren.

David J. Byassee ('06) has joined Klinedinst P.C. as Senior Counsel in their Orange County office. David's practice has included defense of liability claims against a gig economy ridesharing company, defense of other commercial transportation claims involving emerging vehicle technology, defense of commercial premises liability claims, prosecution and defense of construction contract and defect claims, defense of toxic tort claims, and prosecution of subrogation large loss commercial property claims.

G. Zachary Terwilliger ('07) was featured as a "DC Rising Star" in The National Law Journal. He was interviewed and spoke of his most valuable lessons, biggest wins, his father as his greatest legal mentor, and the key to his success.

Jamie Bruno ('08) was selected by Leadership Metro Richmond for its 40th annual Leadership Quest program. The program is a ten-month leadership training program designed to help participants "develop the necessary framework to make a positive and lasting impact in the greater Richmond Region." Jamie is a Partner with Williams and Mullen.

M. Cabell Clay ('08) has been selected as a 2019 American Bar Association (ABA) On the Rise – Top 40 Young Lawyer. The award program provides national recognition for ABA young lawyer members who exemplify a range of high achievement, innovation, vision, leadership, and legal and community service. Cabell is a member with Moore & Van Allen PLLC in Charlotte, NC.

Sean Marotta ('10) was featured as a "DC Rising Star" in The National Law Journal. Sean is a Partner at Hogan Lovells, where he practices Litigation, Arbitration, and Employment. He was interviewed about his most valuable lesson, his biggest win, his greatest legal mentor, and one of the key to his success.

William C. Brown, III ('19) joined the Huntington, West Virginia office of Dinsmore & Shohl. He will practice out of their corporate department.