

William & Mary Bill of Rights Journal Annual Symposium

Privacy, Democracy & Elections

William & Mary Law School

October 22, 2010

Room 124

9:00-9:45     Cutler Lecture, Heather Gerken, Yale Law School “A New Take on Voice and Exit in Federalism”

9:50-11:05     Panel 1: Privacy and Democracy

Moderator: Heather Gerken, Yale Law

- Jim Gardner, University of Buffalo Law School, Privacy and Democratic Citizenship
- Ned Foley, Moritz School of Law, Secret Ballots and Recounts
- John Fortier, American Enterprise Institute, Privacy and Ballots vs. Petitions

11:05-11:55     Break

11:15 - 12:30     Panel 2: Disclosure and Elections

Moderator: Rebecca Hulse, William & Mary Law

- Richard Briffault, Columbia Law, Campaign Finance Disclosure
- William McGeeveran, University of Minnesota Law, The Search for Principles in Electoral Disclosure Rules
- Chris Hoofnagle, Boalt, The Usefulness of Disclosure
- Priscilla Regan and Deborah Johnson, Voting Transparency and Disclosure Transparency

12:30-1:30     Lunch

1:30-3:00     Panel 3: Privacy, Elections, and Technology

Moderator: Danielle Citron, University of Maryland Law

- Jeremy Epstein, Computer Scientist, SRI International, Internet Voting and Privacy
- Nichole Rustin-Paschal, Electronic Privacy Information Center, Online Behavioral Advertising and Political Campaigns
- Guy Charles, Duke Law and Sunshine Hillygus, Duke Political Scientist, Political Parties' Use of Voter Information
- Ann Bartow, University of South Carolina Law, Voter Profiling and the Gender Gap