

BILL HOFFMAN (W&M LAW '77)

As a partner at a major Atlanta firm, Bill Hoffman handled many interesting international and domestic pro bono matters. Examples include:

- Assisted International Criminal Tribunals for both the Former Yugoslavia and Rwanda
- Served as Independent Counsel to the Special Court for Sierra Leone in the prosecution of former president Charles Taylor
- Assisted the Liberian Truth and Reconciliation Commission
- Represented Brazilian girls under that nation's Trafficking Victims Protection Act
- Served as Counsel for the prosecution in the United Nations Khmer Rouge (Cambodia) Tribunal
- Obtained political asylum or other relief for Afghan, Ugandan, Iranian, Liberian, Ethiopian, Kenyan, Rwandan, Burmese, Burundian and Malawian refugees
- On the domestic front, reversed death sentences; procured settlements in cases involving prisoner beatings, prisoner murders, prisoner suicides, and allowing Jewish prisoners to wear yarmulkes while incarcerated; also sued a juvenile prison for unconstitutional conditions under the 8th amendment that resulted in the closure of a prison.

Since retiring as King & Spalding's pro bono partner in 2012, Mr. Hoffman has served as Senior Counsel to the Georgia Asylum and Immigration Network, General Counsel of the Southern Center for Human Rights, and Chair and General Counsel of the Institute for Parliamentary Support in Africa (an organization devoted to constitutional democracy in Africa).
